

A wide-angle photograph of a busy London street. In the foreground, a silver London taxi is parked on the right side of the road, facing towards the viewer. The taxi has a 'TAXI' sign on its roof and a license plate that reads 'LR13 AVG'. The street is lined with historic buildings, and several 'Fenwick' store banners are visible hanging from the buildings. Pedestrians are walking on the sidewalks, and other vehicles are visible in the distance. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.
