| Sparkling wine  | Name of wine   | Origin        | Grape variety(ies) |
|---|--|---------------|--------------------|
|  | Prosecco Extra Dry,Fantinel NV   | Veneto, Italy | Glera              |
| How to say it?  | Pro-sekko Fan-tin-el   |               |                    |
| Tasting note  | Fruity, elegant, refreshing and gentle with ripe apple fruit character   |               |                    |
| Food match  | Antipasto like prosciutto and other cured meats, salty cheeses like asiago, stuffed mushrooms, and nuts like almonds |               |                    |
| Interesting fact  | Extra dry in prosecco is the next level up from dry, that is, it is slightly sweeter than Brut                       |               |                    |

|    | Veramonte Reserva   | Casablanca, Chile | Chardonnay         |
| How to say it?  | Vera-montay Shar-donn-ay  |                   |                    |
| Tasting note  | Crisp acidity and flavours reminiscent of green apple and tropical fruit                                      |                   |                    |
| Food match  | Meaty fish, roast chicken, creamy sauces and soft cheese  |                   |                    |
| Interesting fact  | Casablanca is very near to the coast, so this is a fresher style of chardonnay, ideal for an entry level wine |                   |                    |
| O / V / Veg*  | O,V   |                   |                    |

| How to say it?  | Peeno Greejo Korte Veen-ya  |                   |                    |
| Tasting note  | Light, dry and fresh with delicate apple and pear flavours  |                   |                    |
| Food match  | Aperitif, salads, pasta, cured meats  |                   |                    |
| Interesting fact  | Grigio is Italian for the colour grey, as the grapes are a coppery silver colour                              |                   |                    |

| How to say it?  | Salen-tine Mal-bek  |                                |  |
| Tasting note  | Deep red-purple coloured wine, very intense nose with notes of ripe blackberry, blueberry and redcurrant, with subtle hints of violet. The silky palate has a crisp, balancing acidity which shows the fruit and floral notes backed by vanilla on the lingering finish |                                |  |
| Food match  | Perfect with rib-eye or sirloin steak, lamb or a good cheeseboard   |                                |  |
| Interesting fact  | The winemaker is the famous Jose Galante, who moved to Bodegas Salentein 8 years ago from Catena  |                                |  |

|    | The Federalist Honest Blend   | California                     | Zinfandel, Merlot & Cabernet Sauvignon |
| How to say it?  | On-est Blend  |                                |  |
| Tasting note  | Powerful and spicy with a hint of black pepper and plum   |                                |  |
| Food match  | Lamb, Pork and grilled meats  |                                |  |
| Interesting fact  | This wine is named after America's Founding Fathers (Federalist) and its Honest president, Abraham Lincoln  |                                |  |

|  | Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Les Bartavelles, Jean-Luc Colombo  | Rhone, France                  | Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre, Cinsault   |
| How to say it?  | Sha-toh-nif doo Pap   |                                |  |
| Tasting note  | Elegant, spicy and rich with velvety tannins with flavours of fruitcake and liquorice   |                                |  |
| Food match  | Flavoured lamb or seasoned steak  |                                |  |
| Interesting fact  | Jean-Luc Colombo is known as the wine-making wizard of the Rhone  |                                |  |
